

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JANUARY 29, 1976

Office of the White House Press Secretary

THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced his intention to nominate Jean McKee, of New York, New York, to be Deputy Administrator of the American Revolution Bicentennial Administration. She will succeed Marjorie W. Lynch who was appointed Under Secretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare on November 6, 1975. Miss McKee served on the staff of Senator Jacob Javits from March, 1967, until September, 1975.

Born on June 20, 1929, in New Haven, Connecticut, Miss McKee received her A. B. degree from Vassar College in 1951.

In April, 1952, Miss McKee worked for the United Republican Finance Committee in New York City. From 1953 to 1955 she was with the New York Republican State Committee. She joined the Public Information Department of the Crusade for Freedom in New York in 1955. She was a researcher for Stricker and Henning Research Associates, Inc. of New York from 1957 to 1959. After working on the presidential campaign during 1961, she joined Consensus, Inc., of New York as Partner and Treasurer of the firm, serving until 1966.

Miss McKee is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Waldo McKee. She resides in the District of Columbia.
