

APRIL 14, 1976

Office of the White House Press Secretary

---

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President today announced his intention to nominate Richard A. Revell, of Louisville, Kentucky to be a United States District Judge for the Western District of Kentucky. He will succeed James F. Gordon who retired effective January 1, 1976.

Since December 1975, Mr. Revell has been Judge of the Chancery Branch, Fourth Division, of the Jefferson Circuit Court in Louisville, Kentucky.

A biographical sketch is attached.

# #

RICHARD A. REVELL

Born: May 7, 1931 Hagerstown, Maryland

Legal Residence: Kentucky

Marital Status: Married Wife--Margaret Ruth Heldman
3 children

Education: 1949-1952 University of Louisville
1954-1957 B.S.-1955; J.D.-1957
1951-1952 University of Kentucky

Bar: 1957 Kentucky

Military Service: 1952-1954 United States Army

Experience: 1957 General Practice of Law
1958-1970 Booth & Booth
1963-1970 Judge, Jefferson County Juvenile Court
1970-1971 Dictor and Revell
1971 Judge, Common Pleas Branch
Jefferson Circuit Court
1971 to present Judge, Chancery Branch, Fourth Division
Jefferson Circuit Court

Office: 1001 Fiscal Court Building
Louisville, Kentucky 40202