

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 15, 1976

Office of the Vice President
(Buffalo, New York)

REMARKS OF THE VICE PRESIDENT
AT THE RECEPTION HOSTED BY LOCAL REPUBLICANS
CRYSTAL BALLROOMS A AND B
EXECUTIVE MOTOR INN
BUFFALO, NEW YORK

AT 10:58 P.M. EDT

What a wonderful homecoming! What a wonderful trip to Buffalo, New York, for the Ford-Dole campaign, the winning campaign for November this year, with the next Vice President of the United States, Bob Dole, and Elizabeth Dole, brilliant and beautiful, ladies and gentlemen, I want to tell you.

Where is Senator Buckley? I want this picture complete with Senator Buckley, my candidate for the Senate.

Everyone is present with our chairman. Mr. Chairman, thank you. And here is Sheriff Braun.

I want to tell you, this is great. You have gotten more good candidates out of Buffalo and New York State, and we are just thrilled to be here tonight to kick this campaign off.

I know what Bob and Elizabeth want to do is get a chance to get in this audience and move around and have a chance to meet some New Yorkers. They are wonderful people.

I won't say tonight. Tomorrow morning I want to talk a little bit about Bob and what he contributes to the ticket and the strength he brings to it and the character and the intelligence and the courage and the vision.

I will talk to you tomorrow. Let's tonight have a family party here and everybody get a chance to say hello. We are coming out to say hello.

Thanks a lot, ladies and gentlemen.

END

(AT 11:00 P.M. EDT)