

NOVEMBER 23, 1976

Office of the White House Press Secretary

---

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President today accorded the personal rank of Ambassador to James L. Malone, General Counsel of the United States Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, while serving as the United States Representative to the Conference of the Committee on Disarmament. This will be effective at the conclusion of the current United Nations General Assembly.

Mr. Malone has been General Counsel for ACDA since 1973.
