

January 11, 1977

Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President today announced his intention to nominate J. Robert Hunter of Virginia, to be Administrator of the Federal Insurance Administration. This is a new position. Mr. Hunter is the Administrator of the Federal Insurance Administration by appointment of the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Mr. Hunter was born in New Orleans, Louisiana on October 20, 1936 and attended Clarkson College of Technology and Harvard University.

Prior to serving as Administrator, Mr. Hunter served as Chief of Actuary of the Federal Insurance Administration, beginning in June 1971.

Mr. Hunter is married to the former Carole Means and they have five children. They reside in Alexandria.

#