Song

Dear sisters, listen to the glad refrain,
Coming with joy, to cheer our hearts again;
Through the dark abysses, soon we see the light -
Virgins before us in pure robes of white,
Weary and long may seem the way before,
Many have traveled thus in days of yore.

Diamond star of morning,
At thy shrine we hurl
Love and flowers adorning,
Brightest gold and pearls,
Anthems sweet we sing thee,
Fondly greet us now;
Here in one assembly
Gamma Delta Tau, Gamma Delta Tau.

ARCHERY AND GOLF AS OUTDOOR HOBBIES

—A. A. LeClear — P. A. Dykhuizen.

—A. A. LeClear — P. A. Dykhuizen.

Gamma Delta Taus find archery and golf an enjoyable pastime which is available out-of-doors. Trying their proficiency with the bow and arrow are Miss Pampel Teal (left), daughter of Mrs. Ralph William Bulkeley of Morris-av., and Miss Joan Closterhouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon T. Closterhouse of Madison-av. Golf with intent for a perfect drive down the fairway is the aim of Miss Barbara Cornelius, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Cornelius of Ada-rd., (left) and Miss Fredrica Pantlind, daughter of Mrs. A. Chester Benson of San Lucia-dr. These young women also are busy with plans for their annual, open informal dancing party known as Good Ship, Good Cheer to be held at Kent Country club Thursday evening as a send off party for members of the club, their escorts and other guests who are leaving this fall for study in schools and colleges away.

Nautical Party To Be Event at Kent Thursday

Gamma Delta Taus Sponsor Dance.

THE name Good Ship Good Cheer, is significant of the nautical decorations which will be used at the open informal dancing party which the Gamma Delta Taus are sponsoring under that title at Kent Country club on Thursday evening in compliment to young folks leaving for school and colleges.

Three ships each bearing one of the three Greek letters of the sorority will be placed at one end of the ballroom which in appearance will give the effect of a large ship with portholes and flags. The nautical atmosphere conveyed by the decorations in blue and white also is representative of the sorority's colors. Dancing will be enjoyed on the club porch if weather permits.

Reservations may be made with the Gamma Delta Tau Steamship line for the party at which tickets will be taken by Miss Virginia Wanta as purser.

Those already having purchased tickets for this particular voyage include Miss Mary Griswold, Betty Jane St... Miss Dalrymple... Miss Mar... ing for New F... erine... Georg... Was... O'Br... Jane Mar... at ti... hov... ing... O... U... W... y

Sub-Deb Set House Party Is Held at Ottawa Beach

The tradition of Easter vacation house parties at the big lake in the sub-deb crowd was upheld this year by the Gamma Delta Taus, the other clubs having fallen by the wayside for one reason or another. The College club is concentrating its efforts on the Charlie Agnew dance tomorrow evening and is postponing its house party till June. Some of the other clubs were unable to arrange for cottages in the desired location so decided to forego the whole business.

The Gamma Taus held their outing at Ottawa Beach in the Charles D. Dawson cottage on Thursday and Friday. Mrs. William S. Bloomer and Mrs. Lewis Seal Reynolds were chaperones and the girls took all their meals in Holland.

On Friday evening they invited their boy friends down from Grand Rapids and entertained them at dinner. The girls and their guests were: Miss Mary Griswold and Harry Marshall, Miss Betty Jane Stander and Malcolm Curtis, Miss Betty Bloomer and Louis DeLamar-ter, Jr., Miss Elizabeth Merrick and Allan Hall, Miss Helen Keeler and William Whittier, Miss Barbara Collisi and Richard Cornelius, Miss Fredericka Pantling and Junior Sherwood, Miss Virginia Wanty and William Griswold, Miss Mary Lee Wagner and Tom Hubbard, Miss Barbara Cornelius and Carl Johnson, Miss Celeste Cawthra and Robert Gamble, Miss Betty Dalrymple and Chester Idema, Jr., Miss Betty Lyons and Wallace Hook, Jr.

Other members of the group, who came down for Thursday only, were the Misses Ellen McNabb, Eleanor McCoy, Mary Adelaide Jones, Pamela Teal, Laura Mae Ripley, Diana Welch and Ann Kirby.

Anticipation Is High For Gamma Delta Tau Cabaret

Popular Annual Affair to Be Formal and Open Dec.
28 in Rowe Hotel; Members to Put on
Peppy Floor Show

One of the most popular and looked forward to parties of the holiday season is the annual Gamma Delta Tau "Black and White Ball," to be held Dec. 28, in the Rowe hotel lobby. The dance this year will be a formal cabaret, open to the public.

Johnny Barker and his orchestra will play the program of dances beginning at 9:30 until 12.30 p. m.

A peppy floor show, featuring members of the sponsoring group, will be presented at 11:30. The first number is entitled "The Gammiooca," with Misses Betty Bloomer, Helen Keeler, Bonnie Kate Ide-ma and Fredericka Pantlind as dancers and the Misses Barbara Miller, Barbara Cornelius and Elizabeth Merrick as singers.

Harking back to the days of our grandmothers will be a dance number called "The Floradora" presented by the Misses Mary Griswold, Juno Wanty, Betty Lyon, Diana Welch, Martha Rood, Eleanor McCoy, Ellen McNabb, Betty Jane Stander, Barbara Collisi, Elizabeth Merrick, Barbara Miller and Barbara Cornelius.

The first group of dancers will also do a dance dubbed "The Tapioca."

* * *

Refreshments will be served at tables and among the parties who have reserved are Miss Griswold, Miss Stander, Miss Wanty, Herbert Boshoven, William Griswold, and Malcolm Curtis. Another group will include Miss Keeler, Miss Ide-ma, Harry Southwick and Craig Welch. A third group will include Miss Welch, Miss Pantlind, Kenneth Thomson and Kenneth Welch.
Miss Nancy Mulnix, Miss Mary

Snapp, John Haem and J. C. Hendricks will have a table together.

Other reservations include the Misses Bloomer, McNabb, Barbara Collisi, Merrick, Cornelius, McCoy, Joan Closterhouse, Dorothy Ann

Girls Clubs Plan Dance For Feb. 2

Council Lists Party on April 6.

INFORMAL parties being arranged for the coming months at Civic auditorium include the Dutch treat party which the Interfraternity council will hold April 6 and the Vice Versa party, which the all-girls organization of school clubs is sponsoring Feb. 2. College Rhythm, the College club party, will be held Feb. 15 at Pantlind hotel.

Although it is not yet leap year, many young women will have opportunity to make "dates" for the Vice Versa, which will be held Feb. 15 at Pantlind hotel.
