Dear Mr President:

Your gracious message to Governor Carter illustrated well the decency and dignity which you have brought to the White House. As you think of leaving, you know that you and your family have the best wishes and affection of all Americans.

As one who had the honor to serve you as Director of the Veterans Best Force and as your representative to Lebanon, I feel especially proud but also of pride in having played some part in your Presidency.

My wife, too, joins me in saying thanks for what you have done - and will - for our country.

Respectfully,
Dan Geor
