EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
COUNCIL ON ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY
722 JACKSON PLACE, N. W.
WASHINGTON, D. C. 20006

November 11, 1976

Dear Mr. President:

RW

Nothing any of your friends and supporters can say will erase the results of the election last Tuesday. Nevertheless, I want you to know that this friend at least feels that you deserve the heartfelt thanks of all Americans for the honest, open and competent way in which you have run the government since you took over under the most difficult possible circumstances.

The hearts of the entire Busterud family are with you and your family as you look forward to new challenges. I hope very much that all of us will have a chance to see you even briefly before you depart in January.

Thank you again for serving us all and for giving so much of yourself to being a fine President.

Respectfully yours,

John Busterud
