November 9, 1976

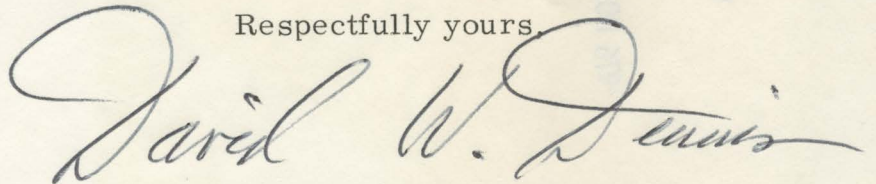

The Honorable Gerald R. Ford
President of the United States
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

I, of course, deeply regret the result of the recent election from every point of view, and I certainly fear that it bodes no good for the future of our country. You, however, fought the good fight and fought it well.

I wish you all good things for the future, and I would like you to know that I am happy and proud that I had the privilege of serving with you, and under your leadership, in the Congress of the United States.

Respectfully yours,

David W. Dennis
