The Honorable Gerald R. Ford
President of the United States
The White House
Washington, D. C. 20500

Dear Mr. President:

You fought the good fight and gave it everything you had which should have brought you the victory you so richly deserved.

Personally, I have never worked harder for any candidate for any office and have never felt more privileged to work for any man than you. I have no regrets there, but only regret for all Americans that our efforts were not crowned with success for America is the big loser.

You will go down in history as being a great President who almost overcame insurmountable odds to win a full term in office.

I am proud to have been, along with my wife Jane, numbered among your most ardent supporters and friends, and we thank you for having served our country so magnificently in one of its most difficult and trying times.

With great respect and admiration.

Sincerely,

Guilford Dudley, Jr.
Former U. S. Ambassador
