Dear Mayor Getterman

LOUIS T. GETTERMAN, JR., President
PAUL HANCOCK, Vice-President

November 10, 1976

THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN.

President Ford
Washington, D.C.

Mr. President:

This country owes you a great deal of gratitude, and I wanted to personally let you know, along with many thousands of others, how much we appreciate the job you did.

It was my pleasure to represent Waco as Mayor at the National League of Cities meeting in Washington, at which you spoke, and later as city councilman I welcomed you before you went upstairs in our convention Hall after the dedication of our Suspension Bridge.

We lost Texas, it seems, because of the rural areas, that should have gone our way, and I hope you will spend your time traveling and speaking to small as well as large groups to bring home the conservative cause.

It has been said many times, out of bad comes good, and I feel you can help create that good.

Sincerely,

Louis T. Getterman Jr.
