THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN....

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
WASHINGTON, D. C. 20515

FRANK HORTON

NEW YORK

Dear Jerry,

MI=

I want you to know how proud I am in the way in which you have conducted yourself both in the campaign and during your outstanding stewardship as President.

As you know, I have had the privilege of serving under four different Presidents. Without question your openness, your candor, your realism and your willingness to consider points of view different from your own have made you the outstanding President among those I have served with.

The American people in this century have had no finer example of dedication to service and to the country than that which you and Betty have typified since your first election to the House of Representatives. During your two short years as President you have in my judgment conferred upon the White House a special imprint and level of dignity which can only enhance the way in which Americans look upon their government and the Presidency.
