THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN...^r

Nov. 11, 1976

Dear Mr. President,

me You ran a fine race and should have no regrets. More importantly, you provided a service to the country during your time in office which will ultimately be recognized as one of the major contributions any president ever made. The period after Mr. Nixon's resignation could have been a calamity. That it was not is your great gift to America.

We in Colorado hope to see you often.

Best wishes,
Jim Johnson
