Dear Mr. President:

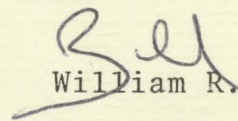

You put up a courageous and honorable campaign. We are all personally indebted to you for the manner in which you returned faith in the Presidency during the past two years.

Your gracious congratulatory message to Jimmy Carter is a credit to the man who wrote it.

I'm proud that I had a chance to serve you. You can be proud of a job well done.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely,

William R. Kintner
