THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN....

Office of the President

November 12, 1976

My dear Mr. President:

I know how you and your wonderful family must feel after losing such a close election, considering the tremendous amount of work and energy that went into this campaign, not only by you but by your staff and so many of your friends. Your message, goals and aspirations were right for this country and I know that time will prove it.

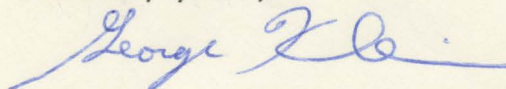

I felt it important to let you know that I, personally, am proud of all the time I spent working for you in this campaign. In general, the results of the campaign were outstanding. In the area that I concentrated on - the Jewish Community - as a national coordinator with Max Fisher, they gave you 45% of their votes according to Time Magazine and Lou Harris. This is the largest percentage ever received by any Republican candidate for the presidency and it reflects their respect and admiration for you and for your policies, since the normal Jewish vote for a Republican candidate has been only 15%.

This election has shown that the Republican Party can attract not only Republican voters, but also many Democrats and Independents and that the party definitely has a strong future in this country.

My greatest satisfaction has been in getting to know you and Mrs. Ford while escorting both of you through the various communities of New York and in the private meetings I had with you in the White House.

We need you and I hope that you will continue to be the leader of our party. Please count on me for any and all assistance.

Sincerely yours,

George Klein
