Dear Mr. President,

M.L.

As old friends and admirers Elizabeth and I want to tell you that we are very sad that you will not be our President for the next four years. Also we wish to express our great pride in your magnificent fight to win what must be one of the toughest political campaigns in history. I'm sure that your calm and courageous acceptance of the verdict and your willingness to assist the President Elect will long be remembered as typical of your character.

Also Elizabeth joins me in expressing our thanks to you for your two great years in the The White House during which you restored confidence in the office of President and maintained an intelligent and steady hand in guiding our country through its many problems.

We hope that when and if you visit San Francisco that we will have an opportunity to see you. I might add that I would be delighted to test your golfing skill once more at Menlo Country Club.

With kind regards,

Dick
