THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN . . .

November 16, 1976

Dear Mr. President and the First Lady:

Many times in the past days since I shook hands with you at the Grand Rapids airport have I formulated a letter to you wonderful people but had not been able to write it.

The alleged results of the election are still impossible to believe.

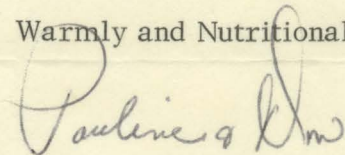

The Ford family has been a real asset to this country for years and particularly have we in Grand Rapids been proud to have you as friends.

No one will ever be able to take away the pride that your family has brought to America in this Bicentennial Year.

Jerry and Betty, God Bless You and your family.

We want you to know that you have a multitude of friends who would love to have you come home.

Warmly and Nutritionally,

Pauline and Don Roskam
