Dear Mr. President:

We are writing to let you know of our deep respect for you and the principles for which you stand. We are so very disappointed at the outcome of the election both for your sake and the sake of our country.

Please know that you and your family are held in our highest esteem. You are all warm and gentle people and we sincerely appreciate your service to our nation.

We wish that we could have given you South Carolina's electoral votes.

With gratitude and best wishes always,

Respectfully,

The Staff of Congressman Spence
