Dear Mr. President:

Please accept my deepest appreciation for your kind and thoughtful letter of congratulations on the occasion of my re-election to Congress.

One of the outstanding highlights of my congressional career has been serving with a man of your stature and ability. You assumed the Presidency at a time when our country was in desperate need of a leader with integrity, honesty and intelligence. Our people owe you more than they can ever repay.

With my best personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Dick
