Dear Betty,

My admiration and warmest best wishes to you and Jerry as the members of the American Newspaper Women's Club salute you this evening.

I've been betting on you ever since we became friends 25 years ago. You won the hearts of Congressional wives then and will capture the hearts of the American people now.

With affection,

Pat Nixon

Dear Betty Ford,

Over the years one of the happier events of spring to which I look forward to, enjoying in retrospect all past ones, is the Senate Ladies Luncheon.

It was always such a pleasure being with you renewing friendships in an atmosphere of fellowship and goodwill. On each occasion I have felt great admiration for the special emphasis placed on the volunteer work you do in behalf of the American Red Cross. Knowing that in addition to the vital responsibilities you must meet as partners in your husbands' careers, you also share your talents and time for the welfare of others is truly an inspiration!

I am delighted with and deeply appreciate the sculptured figurine you presented to me. It will be an ever-valued token of friendship and a treasured memento of this year's beautiful and happy gathering.

With my profound gratitude and all best wishes to each of you,

Sincerely,

Mrs. Gerald Ford

La Casa Pacifica

Dear Betty -

All of our family gathered here for the holidays were enchanted with the parky elephant you chase for us while vacationing at Vail.

A friend sent me the article about you which appeared in the N. Y. Times magazine section. It was a well deserved tribute! The local papers also carry beautiful photographs and excellent stories each day.

We send our deep appreciation for your thoughtful remembrance

and our warm best wishes for the New Year - and always!

D devotedly,
