THE WHITE HOUSE
Office of the Press Secretary to Mrs. Ford

Mrs. Ford announced today the appointment of Mrs. Nancy Howe as her Personal Secretary.

Mrs. Howe has worked as special assistant to Mrs. Ford since October of 1973, when the President was nominated as Vice President. Prior to accepting the position with Mrs. Ford, she had worked for the White House Historical Association.

Mrs. Howe is married to retired Army officer James W. Howe, a professor of modern languages at Trenton State College in New Jersey. They are parents of a 21-year-old daughter, Lise Courtney, who will begin her second year at George Washington University Law School this fall.

Mrs. Howe is a native of Lynchburg, Va., and attended Anderson Junior College, Anderson, S.C. and Lynchburg College. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barl B. McDonald of Lynchburg.
