THE WHITE HOUSE
Office of the Press Secretary to Mrs. Ford

The senior class of The Holton Arms School will hold its senior prom at the White House Saturday, May 31 from 8:30 p. m. -- 12:30 a. m. The Prom, as in previous years, is black tie.

Guests will be the 74 graduating members of the senior class and their dates.

Susan Ford has attended the Bethesda, Md., girls school since 9th grade.

Music will be by The Outerspace of Wendell, Mass., who will play from 8:30 p. m. - 10 p. m.; and The Sandcastle of Richmond, Va., who will play from 10:30 p. m. - 12:30 p. m.

There will be a receiving line in the Grand Hall consisting of Mr. and Mrs. James Lewis (he is headmaster of Holton Arms); and Margi Brawner (class president) and Lisa Camalier (vice president) and their dates.

Guests will enter through the Diplomatic Reception Room and continue upstairs to the State Floor. Dancing will be in the East Room. Hors d'oeuvres and punch will be served in the State Dining Room, and there will be mingling throughout the State Floor.

All expenses are being born by the senior class, which has organized a fund raising event yearly since seventh grade. These projects have included bake sales, a dance, an easter egg party, a school fair and a raffle.

Decorations and flowers are being done by the girls working on the Prom. Table cloths on the cabaret tables were handmade from sheets, in a bright spring pattern of a bamboo print overlaid with flowers. Members of the various committees will arrange the flowers on the day of the prom, using an assortment of spring varieties: daisies, yellow tulips, orange carnations, white sweet peas, mid-century lillies and ming fern.

Hamilton (he is chairman of Holton's board of trustees); Maj. and Mrs. John Alexander (Mrs. Alexander is senior class advisor); and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Puckett (she is dean of students at Holton Arms).
