

THE OKEANSKIY SANATORIUM

The Okeanskiy (Oceanside) Sanatorium is a health spa located 19 kilometers north of the city of Vladivostok on the coast of the Amur Bay. The Sanatorium is owned by various agencies of the Soviet national and local governments, including the Ministry of Defence, the Ministry of Public Health and the Port Workers Trade Union. It was founded in 1927 and has gradually expanded to a physical plant which now includes a library, a swimming pool, sports fields, various other entertainment facilities, and medical facilities. The park in which it is located covers about 100 acres and contains sculpture and various playing fields.
