WILLIAM J. BAROODY, JR., PAPERS, 1961-88
Aide to Congressman and Secretary of Defense Melvin Laird;
Assistant to the President for Public Liaison;
President of the American Enterprise Institute for Public Policy Research

Audiovisual Materials Transferred from the Textual Collection

Summary Description

The William J. Baroody Papers audiovisual series consists of photographs, transparencies, audio recordings, and video recordings related to Baroody's work at the Defense Department, 1961-73; and for Presidents Richard Nixon and Gerald Ford as head of the White House Office of Public Liaison, 1973-77. Materials include photographs, video, and audio tape of the White House Conferences on Domestic & Economic Affairs tour from various locations across the United States, as well as photographs from various groups from the Tuesdays at the White House events.

QUANTITY

145 photographs, 9 contact sheets, 16 transparencies, 15 negatives, 21 audio reels, 54 ¾" video cassettes, 1 2" video cassette, 1 cartridge microfilm, and 5 magnetic tape computer cartridges.

DONOR

William J. Baroody III (accession number 97-NLF-019)

ACCESS

All series covering Baroody's government service, 1961-77, can be made available to research with advance consultation. Some items may be temporarily restricted under terms of the donor's deed of gift, a copy of which is available on request, or under National Archives and Records Administration general restrictions (36 CFR 1256). The remainder of the collection, dating from 1977-88, is wholly unprocessed and therefore closed to research.

COPYRIGHT

William J. Baroody III donated to the United States of America all copyrights which he has in (a) such of the Materials as are unpublished and (b) in such of William J. Baroody, Jr.'s unpublished writings as may be among any collections of papers received by the United States of America from others and deposited in National Archives collections. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain.
