The President's Book of Secrets:

The Untold Story of Intelligence Briefings to America's Presidents from Kennedy to Obama

Every president since Lyndon Johnson has received a Top Secret report—the President's Daily Brief—containing that day's most sensitive intelligence information and analysis of world events.

Authored by David Priess, a CIA insider during the Clinton and Bush administrations, this book relates 50 years of stories about these presidents and their daily book of secrets—including exclusive insights from every living president and vice president.

By David Priess

“Stimulating...Readers accustomed to CIA skullduggery will be surprised to find it admirably portrayed as an organization of experts devoted to delivering unbiased information to a grateful president.” - Publishers Weekly
