JOAN BISKUPIC TALKS ABOUT HER NEW BIOGRAPHY OF SUPREME COURT JUSTICE ANTONIN SCALIA

Ann Arbor, Mich... Join author Joan Biskupic as she discusses her new book American Original: The Life and Constitution of Supreme Court Justice Antonin Scalia, the first full-scale biography of the Supreme Court's most provocative – and influential - justice. The program will be held on Tuesday, January 26, 2010 at 7:30 p.m. at the Ford Presidential Library.

The biography draws on Biskupic's 20 years covering the Supreme Court and unprecedented interviews with the subject himself. Join us for a fascinating talk about the influential justice whom Biskupic calls "a showman, a streetwise guy, and a pulverizer." There is no charge for this event and the seating is open. Book sales, signing, and reception will follow.

Joan Biskupic is the Supreme Court correspondent for USA Today. In 2007, she was a featured commentator in the PBS series "The Supreme Court," and she is a frequent guest on the PBS TV show, "Washington Week." Her other books include Sandra Day O'Connor: How the First Woman on the Supreme Court Became Its Most Influential Justice.

The Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library is open 8:45 a.m. - 4:45 p.m. Monday-Friday and is closed on Federal Holidays. The Ford Library is located at 1000 Beal Avenue on the North Campus of the University of Michigan. Admission and Parking are free. For information please call (734) 205-0555 or visit us on the web at www.fordlibrarymuseum.gov.
